STOCKS KEEP ON DROPPING

Another day of falling stocks was recorded on the local sugar market today, with Wai-alea and Oahu slumping in no uncertain manner, and holders apparently ready to let go at a slightly lower price than they have been. Wai-alea dropped to 121.50, several sales at this figure being recorded between sessions of the stock exchange. Oahu sold at 31.50 between boards, but strengthened to 32, and a number of sales at this figure were made at the morning session.

Onomua also dropped three-quarters of a point, fifteen shares selling at 47.25.
